

CUSTOMER EXPERIENCE, WITH HEKTOR AT THE CENTRE

A better first response.

Answers from your knowledge.
A clear path to your people.

— A focused pilot on your contact page

● THE PROPOSED EXPERIENCE

“Can you help me with this?”

HEKTOR AGENT

Let's find the right answer.

Grounded in Hektor's approved information.

📖 A useful answer

👤 The right colleague

Illustrative concept / not a live service

THE OPPORTUNITY

Help should be easier to find.

Your answers already exist. A conversation makes them easier to reach.

40 staffed hours
per week

128 hours outside the published schedule

Hektor Agent could answer common questions when the team is unavailable.

Forms and email still accept messages.
Opening hours do not measure customer demand.

A WEEK AT A GLANCE

168 hours

THE CUSTOMER JOURNEY

Every question needs a next step.

One chat on the contact page. Three ways to help.

The customer asks

A question in their own words.

hektormobil.se/kontakta-oss

Hektor Agent

Understands the need.
Finds the right next step.

Answer

Explain an approved support topic.

Guide

Prepare an enquiry for sales.

Connect

Bring the right person into the case.

WHAT THE CUSTOMER SEES

A clear answer. A clear way to a person.

Hektor Agent
Här för att hjälpa dig

CONCEPT

Hur fungerar WiFi-samtal?

Du ringer via WiFi i stället för mobilnätet. Din telefon behöver stödja tjänsten.

↻ Hektors vanliga frågor 1

Prata med en människa 2

När supporten är stängd kan du lämna en kontaktförfrågan.

Make the answer checkable.

Show the Hektor page behind the response.

Make the next step obvious.

A visible route to a person, with clear information about availability.

HOW THE ANSWER IS BUILT

Your knowledge. Behind every answer.

Start with information Hektor approves and keeps current.

01 / APPROVED SOURCES

 FAQ & support guidance

 Services & terms

02 / HEKTOR AGENT

Find. Explain.
Show the source.

03 / CUSTOMER RESPONSE

A useful answer.

With a source
and a next step.

 Hektor's own material

Hektor owns the answers. A named owner approves sources and resolves conflicts.

CLEAR RESPONSIBILITIES

The agent explains. Your team decides.

Agree the boundaries before the first customer conversation.

HEKTOR AGENT

Information & guidance

- ✓ Answer approved general questions
- ✓ Explain services and point to sources
- ✓ Prepare support or sales requests

A useful first response.

YOUR TEAM

Judgement & commitments

- ✓ Prices, refunds and payment terms
- ✓ Account changes and cancellations
- ✓ Uncertain or sensitive cases

A person makes the decision.

WHAT YOUR TEAM RECEIVES

A handover with the context attached.

The next colleague should not have to start the conversation again.

A customer needs a person.

The customer asks, or the agent reaches a boundary.

A useful case is prepared.

The question, what was tried and the relevant conversation.

The right team follows up.

Through the agreed support or sales channel.

 SUPPORT HANDOVER

Example

Help with WiFi calling

Reason	Customer asked for a person
Already covered	General explanation and FAQ link
Attached	Relevant conversation and summary

→ Next step

Support follows up through the agreed channel.

A DELIBERATE STARTING POINT

General answers first. Personal support later.

Prove the experience before connecting customer records.

● INITIAL PILOT

Public knowledge.

Approved FAQs, services and support guidance.

📖 Useful without customer-record access.

Separate decision

POSSIBLE NEXT PHASE

Personal support.

Relevant customer information, after an approved identity check.

Verify identity

Limit access

Agree retention

✓ Even a general chat can receive personal information. Agree its handling before launch.

THE PILOT PATH

Prepare. Test. Learn.

One contact page. Approved general questions. One agreed handover.

WHAT SUCCESS LOOKS LIKE

Four questions decide what comes next.

Agree a baseline and success criteria before launch.

Did customers get help?

Resolution, feedback and repeat contacts.

01

Were the answers reliable?

Reviewed answers against approved sources.

02

Did handovers work?

Case delivery, useful context and follow-up.

03

Was it worth running?

Service costs, review effort and staff time.

04

OWNERSHIP & OPERATING MODEL

Clear ownership from the start.

RESPONSIBILITY	HEKTOR	IMPLEMENTATION PARTNER
Service	Own scope and support follow-up	Configure the agreed experience
Knowledge	Approve sources and boundaries	Set up and test the answers
Operation	Approve suppliers and data handling	Monitor, review and report

Transparent supplier costs.

Proposed: Hektor holds the model-provider account and pays usage directly, without markup. Implementation and support are scoped separately.

THE NEXT CONVERSATION

Let's define the first pilot.

Start with your common questions.
Leave with a clear plan.

- 01 Name a Hektor service owner.
- 02 Bring approved material and example questions.
- 03 Confirm who manages the website.

 THE OUTCOME

One agreed pilot plan.

- ✓ A focused scope
- ✓ Price and running costs
- ✓ Clear success criteria
- ✓ A decision to proceed

Useful answers.
People in control.
